

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR THE AWARD OF A RESEARCH GRANT IN THE CONTEXT OF R&D PROJECTS AND INSTITUTIONS

Reference: IPCA-ESG-CICF-1BI-2024-CFG

Number of vacancies: 1 vacancy

R&D Unit: Research Centre on Accounting and Taxation (CICF)

A call for applications is now open for the award of 1 Research Grant (BI) for graduate students within the scope of the R&D unit Research Centre on Accounting and Taxation (CICF), financed by national funds through FCT/MCTES (PIDDAC) with the reference UIDB/04043/2020, under the following conditions:

Scientific Area: Accounting

Admission requirements: Higher education leading to a degree Accounting, Taxation, Management, Economics or related areas, and enrolment in a master's or doctoral course or non-academic degree awarding course integrated in the educational project of a higher education institution. Preference will be given to candidates who meet the following requirements: (1) mastery of the English language (oral and written); (2) experience using data analysis and processing tools (e.g., SPSS, STATA and Excel) and (3) experience in performing research work and writing reports or articles.

Work Plan: The research grant is intended to finance the execution, by the grantee, of activities to support research within the activities and strategy plan of the Research Centre on Accounting and Taxation, particularly in the following research line of the R&D Unit: Financial and Management Accounting.

The grant holder will participate in bibliographic research activities, support in the collection, analysis and statistical treatment of data, support in the organization of meetings and events, support in the preparation of communications and papers, support in the submission of projects and ongoing projects.

Applicable legislation and regulations: Law nº 40/2004, of 18 August (Statute of the Research Grant holder), in its current version published by Decree-Law no. 123/2019 of August 28; Regulation of Scholarships and Research of the Foundation for Science and Technology (Reg. nº 950/2019 of December 16): <https://www.fct.pt/apoios/bolsas/regulamento.phtml.pt>; Research Grants Regulation of the Polytechnic Institute of Cávado and Ave, published by Regulation no. 821/2020 Diário da República n.º 191/2020, Série II de 2020-09-30).

Workplace: The work will be carried out in the facilities of the Research Centre on Accounting and Taxation of the School of Management of the Polytechnic Institute of Cávado and Ave, under the scientific supervision of Professor Kátia Lemos.

Scholarship duration: The fellowship will last for 11 months, scheduled to start in february 2024, as long as the financing of the project is assured, and it is in execution, the end date being 31.12.2024. The scholarship contract may be eventually renewable, if the candidate meets the conditions for another 12 months, up to the maximum time limit in which funding for the project is guaranteed, and if the project is being implemented if it is not denounced, in writing, with 60 days prior notice by either party.

Monthly maintenance allowance amount: The amount of the grant corresponds to € 930,98, according to the table in Annex III of the Research Grants Regulation of the Polytechnic Institute of Cávado e do Ave, in accordance with the update authorized by order of the President of the IPCA for the year 2023. This amount will be paid monthly by bank transfer.

Other benefits: Reimbursement of the Voluntary Social Insurance, corresponding to the 1st Echelon of the contributory base, and Personal Accident Insurance.

Applications evaluation: Applications will be evaluated considering the selection criteria set out below. In case of withdrawal of the selected scholarship holder, the second candidate from the ordered list of candidates will be automatically selected, and so on, until the number of candidates accepted is exhausted.

Selection methods: The evaluation methods will be the following: Curricular evaluation (CE), with a weighting of 60%; and Selection Interview (SI), with a weighting of 40%.

a) The Curricular Evaluation (CE) is based on the following criteria:

- Classification obtained in the Bachelor's degree: 50%
- Proficiency in English (oral and written): 15%;
- Experience in the use of data analysis and processing tools: 15%
- Scientific experience in the area: research work and communications presented at scientific events: 20%.

Each criterion will be valued from 0 to 20

b) The Selection Interview (SI) will have a maximum duration of 30 minutes and is based on the following criteria:

- Motivation and interest for the position: 25%;
- Capacity for expression, argumentation, and verbal fluency: 25%;
- Posture and teamwork experience: 25%;
- Compatibility with the work plan profile: 25%.

Each criterion will be valued from 0 to 20

c) The final ranking of the candidates is made according to the classification scale from 0 to 20 values, as a result of the weighted arithmetic average of the quantitative classifications obtained in each selection method according to the following formula:

$$FC = CE*(60\%) + SI*(40\%)$$

Where:

- FC = Final classification
- CE = Curricular Evaluation
- SI = Selection Interview

Candidates who do not attend the interview, for reasons not legally justified, will be excluded, regardless of the score obtained in the curriculum evaluation, as well as candidates with a final classification lower than 9.50.

Selection Jury: The Jury is composed of:

President:

- Professor Patrícia Gomes

Effective members:

- Professor Kátia Lemos
- Professor Patrícia Quesado

Alternate members:

- Professor Sara Serra
- Professor Verónica Ribeiro

Form of advertising/notification of results: The final results of the evaluation will be publicized, through a list sorted by the final grade obtained, posted in a visible and public place of the IPCA, on <https://ipca.pt/> and on <https://euraxess.ec.europa.eu/>, and the candidate approved will be notified by e-mail with delivery receipt of the notification, in the terms of article 19.º, no. 1, of the Research Grants Regulation of the Polytechnic Institute of Cávado and Ave. All results will be published on the IPCA and CICF website.

Interested parties' participation: The assessment results project is notified to candidates, by e-mail with receipt of delivery, so that they can comment for the purpose of holding a hearing of interested parties, under the terms of article 121 and following of the Code of Administrative Procedure, to email geral_cicf@ipca.pt. In the absence of a response from the candidates, the final assessment list project becomes definitive.

Decision: Once the prior hearing period has elapsed, or the issues raised within this scope have been considered, the jury draws up the final ranking list of the admitted candidates, submitting it, together with the remaining parts of the procedure, to the approval by the IPCA President.

Application deadline and form of submission of applications: The contest is open for a period of 10 working days after publication on <https://euraxess.ec.europa.eu/>.

Applications must be sent exclusively by email to the address geral_cicf@ipca.pt, duly referenced in the subject of the message.

Applications must be formalized, mandatorily, by sending a presentation letter accompanied by the following documents: Curriculum Vitae, Certificate of qualifications, proof of enrollment in a master's degree, doctorate or courses that do not confer an academic degree integrated into the educational project of a higher education institution, and other relevant supporting documents (considering admission requirements).

Curriculum Vitae and Certificate of Qualifications must be presented, the non-delivery of which determines the exclusion. Proof of enrolment in a master's degree, doctorate or in a course that does not confer a degree must be submitted by the time the scholarship is contracted, in which case the candidate must attach a sworn statement that he/she meets the requirements for enrolment in an integrated master's degree or doctorate.

If the candidate is not a Portuguese citizen, he/she must provide documentary proof, at the time the scholarship contract is signed, that he/she has authorisation to remain lawfully in Portuguese territory and that he/she is eligible to sign the contract resulting from the granting of the scholarship.

If the required qualification has been awarded by a foreign higher education institution, it must comply with the terms of Decree-Law no. 66/2018, of 16 August, and any formalities established must be completed by the date of the scholarship contract.

Applications sent by other means or extemporaneous and incorrectly instructed will not be accepted.

Complaint: Complaints from the final ordering list, duly ratified, may be made to the IPCA president, to be submitted within 15 working days from the notification to the email geral_cicf@ipca.pt, which does not have a suspensive effect.

Non-discrimination and equal access policy: IPCA actively promotes a policy of non-discrimination and equal access, so that no candidate may be privileged, benefited, disadvantaged or deprived of any right or exempted from any duty on the grounds of, in particular, ancestry, age, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, family situation, economic situation, social origin or condition, genetic heritage, reduced working capacity, disability, chronic illness, nationality, ethnic origin or race, territory of origin, language, religion, political or ideological convictions and trade union membership..
