Evaluation and selection criteria and procedures:

- The evaluation of the applications will focus on the candidate's merit, applying the following evaluation criteria, valued on a scale of 0 to 20:

Merit of the candidate - MC (100%):

Applications considered admissible will be scored on a scale of 0 to 20 in each of the following evaluation factors:

Factor A – Curricular evaluation (AC), with a weight of 55%;

Subfactor A1 - Classification obtained in the master's degree plus a degree, weighing 70%;

Subfactor A2 - Related scientific and / or professional experience, weighing 30%;

Factor B - Interview (Ent), weighting 40%:

Subfactor B1 - Motivation and interest in the place, with a weight of 20%;

Subfactor B2 - Capacity for expression, argumentation and verbal fluency, weighing 20%;

Subfactor B3 - Posture and experience of team work, weighing 20%;

Subfactor B4 - Compatibility with the work plan profile, weighing 20%;

Subfactor B5 - Proven command of the English language, weighing 20%;

Factor C - Motivation Letter (CM), weighting 5%:

The interview has a maximum duration of 30 minutes.

For the purposes of deciding on the award of scholarships, applicants will be ranked according to the weighted average of the classification obtained in each of the three factors, translated by the following formula:

$$\text{Final Classification (CF)} = (A \times 0.55) + (B \times 0.4) + (C \times 0.05)$$

For tie-breaking purposes, the ranking of candidates will be performed based on the ratings assigned to each of the evaluation criteria in the following order of precedence: factor A followed by factor B and factor C. Next, the following order of precedence for the sub-criteria, namely: A1, A2, B4, B5, B1, B3, B2, C. As a last resort, it will be the responsibility of the jury president to untie the candidates.

Ranking of candidates:

-The classification of each candidate is obtained by the average of the ratings of each of the elements of the Jury.

-In the event of a tie, the decision to break the tie will be made by the Selection Jury, according to the criteria set out in minute 1.

-Based on the CF, the candidates in the first and two position will be selected for the award of this scholarship.

In the event of non-acceptance of the vacancy by one of the serial candidates, the members of the Jury reserve the right to contact the serial candidates in the following positions, in order of ranking, for the award of this scholarship.
